Workation & co

WORKING BETTER, TOGETHER, ELSEWHERE...
BETWEEN REFLECTION, SHARING AND LETTING GO

Created from the fusion of "work" and "vacation," the word workation embodies a new way of working: more human, more mobile, more inspiring.

In a world where remote working has redefined professional interactions, this new type of hybrid stay is emerging as a lasting trend, fostering collaboration and the creation of strong connections in a more fluid environment.

Le Village du Caillou offers spaces designed to meet this need for human and professional alignment.

Le Village accueille up to 100 people without compromising on comfort and consists of residential apartments for 4 to 8 people, with double rooms, a far cry from large, impersonal dormitories.

Surrounded by nature and close to Dinant Évasion activities, it is the ideal setting for a unifying seminar or an immersive training course.
